

To the
Sup^l of the Mint,
Dear Sir

I am told that you buy, for the Mint, old coins and money-pieces. I may be misinformed, but if not, I offer for your consideration a revolutionary shilling - paper - printed by Hall & Sellers in Phila. 1776.

On one side is a border of scrolls - in the center, something like a sun is portrayed with a double circle containing these words, "American Congress" - "We are one"; - whilst around this are thirteen interlocking circles with the names of the thirteen original States. "One fitch of a Dollar" is also printed on this side as it is several times on the reverse side which has also on it the no. - 542667 and the signature N. Fellers, besides the words - According to a Resolution of Congress, passed at Philadelphia Feb. 17, 1776." On this side a sundial is represented with the sun shining upon it - beside it being the word "Fugio" and underneath it "Mind your business". All the border on this side is printed "Continental Currency" and several times "One fitch of a Dollar".

I assure you that it is an "ancient genuine" but I've described it thus minutely that you may judge for yourself.

If you wish to purchase this and find it to be as I've represented what will you offer for this piece, although of course I reserve the right of refusal as I intend to visit - at the suggestion of political friends - Wash-D. C. and offer it to the proper Government officials.

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest opportunity I remain

Yours truly,
Mrs. H. C. Haught, of 1776.

[Abstract:] Offers to sell a Revolutionary Shilling paper of 1776.

To the Supt. of the Mint,

Dear Sir:

I am told that you buy, for the Mint, old coins and money pieces. I may be misinformed, but if not, I offer for your consideration a revolutionary shilling – paper – printed by Hall & Sellers in Phila. 1776. On one side is a border of scrolls – in the center, something like a sun is portrayed with a double circle containing these words “American Congress”- “We are one”; - whilst around this are thirteen interlocking circles with the names of the thirteen original states. “One Sixth of a Dollar” is also printed on this side as it is several times on the reverse side which has also on it the no. 542667 and the signature Nr. Sellers, besides the words “According to a Resolution of Congress, passed at Philadelphia Feb. 17, 1776”. On this side a sun dial is represented with the sun shining upon it – beside it being the word “Fugio”, and underneath it “Mind your business”. In the border on this side is printed “Continental Currency” and several times “One sixth of a Dollar”. I assure you that it is an “ancient genuine” but I’ve described it thus minutely that you may judge for yourself.

If you wish to purchase this and find it to be as I’ve represented what will you offer for this piece, although of course I reserve the right of refusal as I intend to visit – at the suggestion of political friends – Wash. D.C. and offer it to the proper Government officials.

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest opportunity.

I remain,
Yours Truly,
Mrs. H.C. Haight
